

Building Program Planned For Comanche Grade School

Petitions are being circulated this week in the Comanche Independent School District to request the prepayment of a bond to the taxpayers of the said District, for the consideration of constructing a new grade school building for Grades 6, 7, and 8. This petition culminates a study that began over a year ago by the Comanche School Board regarding the conditions of the present Junior High building.

In February of this year Charles Roberts of the School Planning Department of the Texas Education Agency was invited to make a survey of the Comanche School physical plant. After this survey he met with the School Board and advised them that the conditions of the present Junior High building were serious, and that plans should be made to replace this building in the near future.

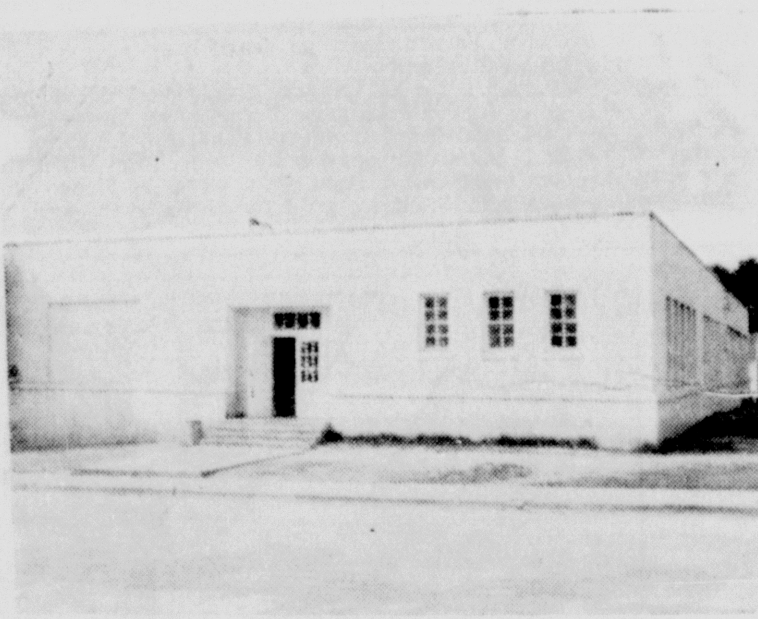

This decision came from the fact that the foundation of this building is in poor condition, with many large cracks forming in the building, as well as the fact that this building has small rooms and is inadequate for the number of students that it is serving.

It was further stated at this time that in the not too distant future, this building would be condemned unless the School Board laid plans for improvement.

From this beginning the School Board entered into a study of the physical plant of the Comanche School District, as well as a detailed financial study of the possibilities of presenting a building program to the citizens of the District. On May 18, 1961, after considering several persons, the Columbia Securities Corporation of San Angelo was employed as the fiscal agent, for a study of financial plans for a possible future building program. Gordon Charlton has represented this concern, and his function has been to present various financial plans to the School Board, as well as to aid in preparing all legal papers, etc., that are necessary in a building program.

On June 22, 1961, after considering a number of architects, the School Board decided to study further the work of three different firms. After visiting school buildings constructed by the three architects, the Board on July 3, 1961, employed as architects for the Comanche Independent School District.

COMANCHE JUNIOR HIGH BUILDING—Pictured above is the old "West Ward" school building, constructed in 1913 for primary students, which was converted to Junior High School several years ago. Comanche School District officials announce a plan to replace the old structure with a new Grade School building, if school district voters approve.

Indians To Invade Hamilton Friday Night

The Comanche Indians, surprise co-leaders with District 8-AA favorite, Hamilton, clash Friday night at Kookan Field—with the winner being virtually assured of at least a part of the title crown.

Hamilton, winners of eight straight games this season and one of the few teams in the undefeated, untied AA grid ranks, has a big rugged team headed by one of the state's outstanding backs, power-running Bobby Cornelius.

The Bulldogs have been virtually unextended this season, having only one close game—winning a 24-6 decision on Friday, 14-8 over Gatesville.

Besides knocking off district foes, Dublin 22-0, and De Leon, winning, 14-8 over Gatesville, 14-0, the big Bulldogs hold wins over Santa Anna, Lampasas, San Saba, Goldthwaite, Clifton and Glen Rose.

The Friday night game is to be the annual homecoming affair for the Bulldogs.

The "Big Red" has an experienced quartet of backs running behind the biggest line that the Indians have faced this season. Cornelius heads Hamilton's strong running game—carries on nearly every play, and hits at all sides of the line.

Indians Improving

The Indians, after winning the season opener against Eastland, dropped four straight tilts in a row—to Coleman, Cisco, Lampasas, and Ballinger. For the last two weeks, the locals have been in the winning circle—having stopped defending district champion Dublin 7-0, and last week triumphed a good Richfield of Waco team, 28-6.

The one-two offensive punch of the Indians, Jerry Todd and Harold Perkins are going to be playing this week with handicaps—as Todd is suffering from a bruised hip, and Perkins is not to be at full strength due to a groin injury.

Hamilton is definitely the big favorite to down the Indians, but off-times in the 40-year rivalry the favored team has come out on the short end of the count.

Indian Coaches Roger Oliver, Vic Richardson, and Ray Smith and their proteges have been working hard all week, and have "an upset in mind."

Mrs. L. M. Richmon Receives State 4-H Alumni Award

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 26. (Sp.)—Mrs. L. M. Richmon, an adult 4-H leader in Comanche County for 15 years, was one of four former 4-H Club members named today to receive state 4-H Alumni Recognition Awards. Others were Maynard Abrahams, San Patricio county; Lawrence Pfluger, Travis county and Mrs. Dewey Burrous, Angelina county.

The state 4-H Club office announcement said Mrs. Richmon would receive a burnished copper plaque mounted on walnut and that her nomination would be submitted for national consideration. Donor for the 4-H Alumni Awards is the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, Agricultural Chemicals Division, Little Rock, Arkansas.

The state winner was a 4-H member in Brown County and conducted demonstration involving gardening, canning, sewing and bedroom improvement. Her maiden name was Lora Willis Stewart.

Her 4-H career was short, but during the past 15 years, her contributions to the organization are almost numberless and reflect her adherence to the ideals and principles for which 4-H stands. Her four daughters were 4-H members and made outstanding records. It was in appreciation of their mother's efforts in their behalf and County Agent Angus Dickson's appreciation for her many performances beyond the call of duty that she was nominated by the five.

Mrs. Richmon taught school briefly after attending Howard Payne College but gave it up to become a homemaker. Her leadership of the De Leon 4-H Club has reached some 300 boys and girls and among her greatest joys has been their successes. Many county, district and state winners are included.

The state winner is active in every undertaking that will benefit her church, school, community or county. Her talents have been recognized by the Texas Safety Association and Texas 4-H Recognition Committee. But most important, by the boys and girls who have been members of the club she has served.

YOUNG FARMER CHAPTER RATED OUTSTANDING

The Comanche County Young Farmer Chapter is rated among the top in the area. Although the group is slightly less than one year old, recognition has come to the organization as being one of the outstanding chapters in the northern section of Texas.

The chapter has been selected as the second place winner in Area IV. Ted Littlejohn, chapter reporter has placed first in public relations and publicity, and Bill Evans, the chapter's candidate for Outstanding Young Farmer of Texas has placed first in the area competition.

Evans was selected as the State winner in the Texas Jaycees Young Farmer contest last spring at Seguin as the State Jaycees chose the state winner. His entry will represent Area IV in the State Young Farmer contest to be judged by the Texas Education Agency at College Station, Texas A. and M. College the 23rd of October. The state winner will be honored at the state meeting in Dallas, Dec. 8.

Many members of the Comanche County Young Farmer Chapter and their wives are making plans to attend the state Young Farmer meeting, Dec. 8th and 9th at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas.

The Comanche Young Farmers were led by Bill Lane as their first president during their first year. The present president for the current year 1961-62, is Evans, the newly selected winner of Outstanding Young Farmer from Area IV.

The organization invites all of the men in the Comanche County area who are interested in farming to join their group and participate in their programs. The organization is educational in nature and attempts to assist the young men in keeping up with the many changes that are constantly taking place in agriculture. For those who may feel that they are a bit past the 35 year Young Farmer age, the chapter boasts of a number of associate members who have all of the rights and benefits of regular members with the following exceptions: They cannot hold an office in the chapter and cannot vote on policies that affect the organization as a subsidiary of the State Young Farmer Organization. With the two aforementioned limitations, the organization is open to all males who are interested in agriculture. This makes part-time farmers, those connected with the sale of agricultural supplies of every type, farm machinery, feeds, chemicals and many other related occupations eligible as members, due to their interest in agriculture.

For the Young Farmers' wives the ladies have organized a Young Homemakers organization. Their members should be interested in homemaking. They also take interested ladies who are not the wives of Young Farmers. This makes these organizations open to a wide variety of people who are interested in keeping up with the changing times and events in a modern America.

The good year of 1961 is slipping away. Only two more months now until Christmas.

There is a lot of sin in the world today, but in most respects, things are better than they used to be, especially in a town the size of Comanche.

For one thing, people seem to be more honest. When we first became publisher of The Chief more than 30 years ago, hardly a month went by without there appearing in the paper a "Notice of Bankruptcy." It now has been years since we published such a notice. Of course, not everybody who goes into bankruptcy is dishonest.

A person who keeps his promises and pays all his bills when due, is just as good as a financial risk as a millionaire for loans within his wealth range.

Another change for the better, is that we seldom hear a man today cursing or taking the name of God in vain just in an ordinary conversation. That use to be very common.

It also has been a long time since we have seen a fist fight on the square of Comanche. That use to happen on nearly every Saturday and First Monday, and sometimes knives were used.

Texas is one of the less than a half dozen states that still require a poll tax for voting. Personally we see no objection to the poll tax. It serves also somewhat as registration for part of the voters.

If you intend to vote in the 1962 elections and are under 60 years of age and at least 21 years of age, you cannot vote unless you pay your poll tax before February 1, 1962.

Remember that the primary elections now come the first Saturday in May with the run-off primary, a month later on the first Saturday in June.

You will remember that all county officers now are elected for four year terms, also some of the district officers, including the state senator and the district judge.

Congressman, state representatives, and all state officers are still elected every two years.

County and precinct officers who come up for election in 1962 are county judge, county clerk, county treasurer, county school superintendent, district clerk, Commissioners Precinct Nos. 2 and 4, and Justice of Peace Precinct No. 1.

Already some prospective candidates for county offices have been feeling out the political pulse of the voters. Rumors are that J. Y. Robinson is interested in the county judge's race.

Approximately 4,200 people voted in the first primary in Comanche County in 1960.

The Republican vote in Texas in the General election of 1960 was so heavy, that party under the laws of Texas now must also hold a primary in 1962, if they are to have a party ticket in the 1962 November election.

The Comanche High School Indian football team, by defeating the Richfield High School Rams of Waco, 28-6, brought their number of victories this year to three, a remarkable record, considering the inexperienced team that new Coach Oliver and his assistants started the season with when it was predicted by many that the team would be lucky to win a single game.

We recall that Pat Cagle, one of Comanche's most successful business men, and one of the Indians staunchest supporters, in a speech at the football ice cream supper given at the stadium, at the end of the pre-season training period, said, "That never a finer set of Comanche High School boys ever got together to form a school football team; nor never one of less experience and training than this one, we have this year."

"The only hope we have of winning a single game," said Cagle, a former Indian coach, "lies in the belief that the school board and superintendent have gotten together a strong coaching staff."

That coaching staff and the school authorities deserve much credit and praise for what has been done, whether we win another game or not.

Our superintendent is a man who believes that whatever our school undertakes to do, should be done well, whether it be work or play. This, of course, does not mean winning every game because that is impossible and would not always be even desirable.

Many different phases of education in our high schools are being covered today, that had not even been thought of a few years ago.

The U. S. Treasury Department, of which the Internal Revenue is a part, says that many Texas high schools today are using the free income tax training materials sent out by Internal Revenue Service.

Ellis Campbell, Dallas District Director of Internal Revenue, says that up to October, 425 Texas schools had ordered income tax material for several hundred teachers to use in training approximately 45,000 students in the knowledge of our income tax laws.

Campbell says that this free training material should be ordered before November 1, 1961.

Mr. Campbell points out there are heavy penalties for those who fail to pay their income tax, citing the following example:

"A 66 year old house-mover recently pleaded guilty to two counts of evading income taxes amounting to $1,910.91 for the years of 1954 and 1955.

"The man who lives in Stamford, Texas, is married and has four grown children, but never before had filed an income tax report in his life, until he was requested to do so by the Internal Revenue Department in 1956.

"The man was requested to file a correct income tax for each of these two years and pay the tax by the first of 1956.

"The man then hired an accountant and filed fraudulent returns for both 1954 and 1955. He was tried in a U. S. District Court and the Internal Revenue Service called 49 witnesses from Stamford and several from Abilene to be on hand for the trial. He was tried before U. S. Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson of Dallas.

"In tracing the man's record, it was found that the man had been tried for 'mule rustling' back in 1935 and was convicted and given a 5-year suspended sentence.

"Judge Davidson said he would withhold sentencing the man in the income tax evasion case until he could get a report from the probation officer on the man's record since he was convicted in the mule rustling case."

The Certified Public Accountants Association of Texas has recommended that all students before they receive their high school diploma should be required to take a course in how to prepare their income tax returns.

The CPAs, based on their professional experience in preparing income tax returns, believe that every high school graduate needs this fundamental training in our American way of life.

We have heard very little complaint in Comanche County on the State's 2 percent sales tax. It seems that most of us realize that all of us receive benefits from our County and State and are glad to pay our part.

Some think it would have been better if the law had called for two per cent tax on every sale and this would have simplified the bookkeeping.

The sales tax also added prestige to the lowly penny. We used to count pennies in our purse almost a nuisance as they just took up room and would not buy much.

But since the parking meters, and the 7 cents for a Comanche Chief came into style, and now the 2 cents sales tax, most of us just consider we are unlucky unless we have a few pennies in our pockets.

Some people seem to think that the main purpose of displaying a safety sticker on the windshield of their car is just to keep from being fined $16.50 in justice court for not doing so.

That is one reason why we should have the sticker, but the original purpose goes back further than that.

Most of us are not mechanics and we should have our car checked at least once a year to find anything wrong that might lead to a wreck, which might cost us dearly.

A few people just drive up to a garage and have the mechanic put a sticker on the car without really checking it. That might cost us a lot more than we paid for the sticker—and too, the garagemen might suffer serious consequences for failing to follow the law.

A clever little invitation to a Golden Wedding Celebration by a Ballinger couple, was carried recently in The Ballinger Leader, which you might want to copy for a guide if you are planning such a celebration soon. It read as follows:

"Fifty years we have been together; Our love endured hot wind and weather; Whether we met you early or late, Won't you help us celebrate? No gifts at all will be expected Just you alone will be accepted."

The program started several years ago by the U. S. Government for the sale of land to veterans at a low interest rate, small down payment, and on long terms, is just about to end, according to announcement from Austin.

The recent sale of $25,000,000 in bonds for the Veterans Land Board, completes the borrowing by the State Government for that program.

Several years ago voters authorized $200,000,000 in bonds to finance purchases of farms and ranches for Texas veterans.

In the last year, about $37,000,000 has been invested in land since the program was revived after an increase in the authorized interest rate.

State Senator Preston Smith of Lubbock was the first candidate to officially announce as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Texas in the first Democratic primary to be held the first Saturday in May, 1962.

Senator Smith, who served for three terms in the Texas House of Representatives, and five years in the Senate, ran for the office of lieutenant governor in 1959, finishing third in the race. That was the year Ben Ramsey won the run-off and started in his sixth term in that office.

Roy D. Mims, Jr., of Comanche is one of the 415 students enrolled in the Kansas City College of Osteopathy and Surgery. "Danny", as he is known to his Comanche friends, is a graduate of Comanche High School and of Texas Wesleyan College of Fort Worth.

Danny's present plans after graduation from the College of Osteopathy and Surgery, is to return to Comanche and assist his father at Comanche Memorial Hospital. He is a sophomore in the Kansas City College.

Vows In Garland Recnelty

Miss Ruth Anne McKool, daughter of Mrs. Ruth F. McKool of Garland, became the bride of Dalton Russell Hicks on October 7th, the 45th wedding anniversary of the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fletcher of Garland.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hicks of Comanche.

The double ring ceremony was performed at the First Christian Church in Garland at 8:00 p.m. by the Reverend Wilbur M. Mix, pastor of the First Christian Church in Gainesville. He was assisted by the Reverend Ed S. Mace, pastor of the First Christian Church of Garland.

Mrs. Wilbur M. Mix sang "Al-ways", "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Mrs. E. P. Landen at the organ, who also played the traditional wedding music.

The vows were exchanged before an arch of candelabras flanked with baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and additional candelabras. The candles were lighted by Jimmie Joe Mothershed, cousin of the bride, and Jimmy Adams.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, George Fletcher McKool, chose a formal chapel length gown of pure silk peau de sole, designed with long sleeves with petal points over the wrists. The dress featured a fitted bodice, scoop neckline enhanced with appliques of peau de sole and lace, and a bouffant skirt. On her head the bride wore a Juliet cap of matching fabric traced with seed pearls and sequins, holding a full tiered veil of French silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds, gardenias, and stephanotis.

Mrs. R. D. Batjer Jr. was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Warren Ray Wyllik of Garland, Misses Cindy Finley and Sue Chaney of Oklahoma City were flower girls. The attendants wore street length dresses of pastel blue satin du cehome fashioned with scoop necklines, three-quarter sleeves, and bouffant skirts. They wore matching hats and shoes.

Donald Ray Spivey of Comanche was best man. Groomsmen were Marvin Lee and Robert Willis, both of Comanche, and Billy Findley and Billy Stewart, both of Garland. The ring bearer was Mike Cope of Garland.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blye of Garland as host and hostess.

The bride is a graduate of Garland High School and the Oklahoma University School of Nursing. The bridegroom is a graduate of Comanche High School and attended the University of Houston and Arlington State College. He graduated from McMurry College where he was a member of the varsity football and track teams.

The couple are at home at 1510 Kingsley Road, Garland.

Allowed For Diverting Wheat

Wheat farmers who divert acreage from production of wheat under the 1962 wheat stabilization program may earn payments by putting that land into approved conservation uses. And the County Agricultural and Stabilization and Conservation Service office now has authority and will be prepared to make a partial payment at the time of sign-up, according to William F. Bryant, Chairman, Comanche County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The Agricultural Act of 1961 provides that up to not more than 50 per cent of the payment to producers may be made in advance of determination of performance. This provision is designed to provide income to farmers ahead of harvest time.

The advance payment that can be made at the time of sign-up is computed by multiplying the number of acres to be diverted by the farm payment rate that is based on 45 per cent of the receive this advance payment in cash or in wheat. When a farmer signs up to participate in the 1962 wheat program, he must indicate the acreage he intends to divert to a conservation use if he desires payment. The law requires him to divert a minimum of 10 per cent of what his wheat allotment would have been without new program or 10 per cent of his highest acreage if such acreage has not exceeded 15 acres in the past years. This minimum diversion is reflected in the 1962 farm wheat allotment sent to farmers before the referendum.

The ASC office will issue the producer a sight draft. If he wants cash, he merely endorses the draft and cashes it at his local bank, or the sight draft may be used to purchase wheat at the market price as determined by the Commodity Credit Corporation. Only the original payee may use the sight draft to buy wheat. Subsequent payees may endorse the draft for cash only.

Other details of the program, including the producer's high and low option on diversion and a complete list of approved conservation uses are available at

Comanche Man's Nephew Killed Near Abilene

Price Allen Boyce, 37, who was slain at Lake Fort Phantom Hill, near Abilene, Saturday, was a nephew of Virgil Cash, Comanche, according to Mr. Cash, who submitted the following account from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram:

Murder Charge Filed Against Woman Cashier

Abilene, Oct. 23 (Spl)—A murder charge was filed Sunday in Jones County against an Abilene drug store cashier in the shooting death of Price Allen Boyce, 37, of Abilene.

Mrs. Billie Barlow Young, 39, is free on $2,500 bond.

Boyce, a tile contractor, was wounded fatally in the stomach by a bullet from a .38 pistol. The shooting occurred just before midnight Saturday in a mobile home at Lake Fort Phantom Hill, 15 miles northeast of here.

The scene of the shooting is in Jones County but has been annexed by Abilene because the lake furnishes water for the city.

Mrs. Young surrendered to Abilene police early Sunday morning.

Sheriff Dave Reves of Jones County said the case will be sent to a Jones County grand jury. The next regular session of the jury is in January, he said.

Boyce is survived by a son, David, 14, and a daughter, Barbara, 10, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Price Boyce, all of Abilene.

Funeral services were to be held at 3 p.m. Monday in Kiker-Warren Chapel here with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

Miss Patricia Barnett Honored With Shower

Miss Patricia Barnett of Dublin, bride-elect of Marjane Strube, was honored recently with a bridal shower at the Proctor Community Center.

Miss Judy Howell registered guests on a table centered with a miniature arrangement of white gladiolas and greenery.

A huge arrangement of white gladiolas and greenery arranged on two large rings covered in white satin ribbon and tied at the top, centered the refreshment table, which was covered with a blue lace cloth. Mrs. Dub Fautherie of Waco poured punch from a crystal bowl and Mrs. Dave Sears served assorted cookies from a crystal tray.

The gifts were displayed on tables covered in white and centered with blue daisies.

Miss Barnett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Barnett of Dublin and attended Dublin High School. Mr. Strube is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Strube of Proctor and is employed by Arthur Chevrolet in Comanche. The couple's wedding date was set for Oct. 21 in the Second Baptist Church in Dublin.

release from New
that our Congress-Burleson of Anson.

who is now also a delegate from the U. S. Congress to the United Nations, is taking a firm stand to project our interest in that body and to see that we are not unjustly taxed in financing that body. The release:

Representative Omar Burleson
of Texas, Delegate from the Congress to the United Nations, in an address before the General Assembly's Budgetary Committee on Tuesday warned that Americans were beginning to question whether they should continue increased financial support to the United Nations.

He noted the refusal by a growing number of members to pay for costs and other expenses
they regarded as politically objectionable. He asserted that Americans expect "all other members to contribute their fair share of all costs."

"Some Americans are beginning to wonder whether there exists a sufficient general regard for the principle of integrity to guarantee the future of the United Nations," Burleson said. He added:

"I do not wish to be an alarmist, but the danger signals are apparent."

The point has been reached that the United States now pays about half of the bills for the United Nations operations and special programs.

In the course of his statement,
Burleson also commented upon the status and structure of the Secretariat, now in the forefront
as a result of the death of Dag Hammarskjold. He said that the staff "must be independent of control of their governments so far as actions taken in the course of their official duties are concerned."

This obviously was in reference to the contention of the Soviet Union that Under Secretaries of the United Nations should come from areas divided by political philosophies rather than geography alone.

"Proposals that the number of staff members be divided equally among nationals of socialist,
western, and neutral countries
have everything to do with violating the Charter concept of the international civil servant," he said.

"When deliberations are based on emotions and on sectional issues only, as many here apparently practice, then the entire organization loses meaning and effect," Burleson stated. He said further, "In my brief observations and experience here, this attitude seems to dominate most actions thus far."

Burleson's statement brought an immediate and lengthy attack
from Russia's delegate Roshchin.

We recently received a letter from L. B. Russell, Jr. of Edinburg, a brother of Mrs. Clara May Hamilton of Comanche, and a cousin of Mrs. Wilkerson.

He was reared in Comanche
and was a nephew of the late G. A. Beeman, founder of The Comanche Chief. His father, the late L. B. Russell, Sr., who helped publish The Chief at several different times in its early days, was generally conceded to be one of the wisest men ever to live
in Comanche.

One thing that we learned from the letter recently received from L. B. Russell, Jr., was that Comanche once had a bank robbery. We always had thought that no bank had ever been robbed in Comanche during its more than 100 years of history.

We knew that the Proctor State Bank was robbed in the early 30's when Dwight Brightman, now county judge, was sheriff. Brightman caught the robber and he was tried, convicted and sent to prison.

Mr. Russell says, "I worked in The Chief for three or four years before I began working in the First National Bank when I was 15 years old. The First National Bank at that time was located on the west side of the square near where the Durham Drug Store is now located.

"The robbery took place in that building when a private bank was operated there before the First National was established.
I do not remember for sure who operated the private bank, but think it might have been Jesse & Livingston.

"Charlie (C. B. Mason) was working in the private bank and must have been cashier or bookkeeper at the time the bank was robbed of about five thousand dollars by two horsemen. The horsemen rode into town and tied their horses to the hitching rack on the west side of the square, and then went into the bank and pulled their guns and demanding all the money available. The robbers then marched him ahead of them out of the bank and ordered him to go to the hitching rack. They then shook hands with him and jumped on their horses and fled.

Mr. Russell says he can't remember whether or not the robbers were ever caught nor whether or not they were ever identified.

Quoting further from Mr. Russell's letter, he says, "I have a copy of The Chief, a special edition of 1903 published by Sid Thomas in which there is a brief history of The Comanche Chief written by my father.

"In that article Dad mentioned having reported the trial of John Wesley Hardin held in Comanche in 1876. He reported it in great detail, giving the testimony of all the witnesses in the case.
He says that the report filled
most of that edition of The Chief,
although it was printed in fine
"brevier" type. He said that his father sent a copy of the report to the Galveston News, that being the daily paper that was most widely read in this section at that time. It was about that time that the Galveston News spread out and established the Dallas Morning News.

"If you have the copy of that issue of The Chief, I would like to see it some time when I am
in Comanche."

Note: We do not have the copy mentioned. In fact, we have seen only one or two copies of The Chief published in the 70's.

The late Dr. Robert T. Hill told us once that there was a complete file of the copies of The Chief from the time it was established in 1873 up to and including 1884, in the library of Cornell University. Dr. Hill attended that college and he may have presented the copies to that university.

Dr. Hill also said that the University of Texas which opened for students in 1883 had on file early copies of The Chief published from that time up to about 1900.

L. B. Russell, Jr., says that in addition to his four or five years experience as a boy working in The Chief office, he later had some additional newspaper experience when he published in Amarillo "The Livestock Champion." Working for him in the newspaper at Amarillo were two former Chief printers, Bob Drake
and Cyrus Tunnell. L. B. Russell Jr. was also one of the three first men to own automobiles in Comanche. The other two were O.
O. Brightman and one of the Baxter Brothers.

University Women Hold Meeting In Stephenville

The Stephenville Branch of the American Association of University Women met in the Robin Room on the Tarleton State College campus, Thursday night, October 19th, for the regular monthly meeting. The International Committee was in charge of the very informative program.

Henry Chow, of Hong Kong,
China, a pre-med student at Tarleton, entertained the group with recordings of Chinese folk songs, recorded by members of a training center for the blind in Hong Kong. Miss Margaret Yung, who was born in Shanghai, China, talked on Lives of Women in Hong Kong. Mrs. Judy Nichols of Stephenville, talked on Civil Defense program for preparedness. Stephenville has been designated as an emergency center for the Fort Worth-Dallas area and has 250 bed emergency equipment stored, ready for use.
Miss May Jones reported on recent legislation in the AAUW.

dependent School District the firm of Wilson, Patterson, Sowden, Dunlap & Epperly of Fort Worth. In choosing this architect the Board had visited schools at Gatesville and Joshua, Texas, that had been supervised by the above architects. From this beginning the School Board has entered into a number of meetings which now approach the offering of a program for the citizens of Comanche to consider.

The planned program involves the construction of a small school plant that will have the following facilities: Ten regular classrooms, a small science department, library, principal's office, counselor's office, small first aid room, restrooms, small workroom, a lunchroom, and a minimum-sized gymnasium for P.E. purposes only. Consideration of presenting the above need is determined by the present required accreditation standards of the Texas Education Agency, and no additional needs above the necessary requirements are being presented.

If the circulating petitions meet requirements, the Comanche Independent School Board has made tentative plans to call the bond election for Saturday, December 2, 1961, with absentee voting to begin on November 13 and run for twenty days.

Citizens of the Comanche Independent School District are urged to visit the present Junior High building if any question arises regarding the need for consideration of this bond.
